

MRS. F. B. HARRISON KIND TO MINISTER

Rebuilt Home Destroyed
by Fire.

HER FATHER-IN-LAW'S UNCLE

Late Wife of Ex-Congressman Wired
From Florida for Permission to Erect Dwelling.

BELAIR, Md., Dec. 1.—The death of Mrs. Mary Crocker Harrison, wife of ex-Representative Francis Burton Harrison, of New York city, which was the result of an automobile accident last Saturday, recalls a charitable act of Mrs. Harrison toward one of Hartford's prominent ministers.

Col. Burton N. Harrison, Mrs. Harrison's father-in-law, was a nephew of the Rev. Dr. William F. Brand, the venerable pastor of St. Mary's Protestant Episcopal Church, near Emmorton, where he spent much of his youth, going from there to Yale College.

Several years ago, when Dr. Brand's home was destroyed by fire, Mrs. Harrison wired from Florida, asking the privilege of building a new dwelling for the popular pastor and his wife. A handsome brick residence, adjoining St. Mary's Church, was shortly afterward erected, and it stands today as an enduring monument to Mrs. Harrison's generosity.

Dr. Brand was ninety-one years of age in June last, and he continues to take an active part in the services of St. Mary's, which church he has faithfully served for more than a half century.

STERN SHERIFF SELLS WINNIE McMICHAEL OUT

Durham's Gifts Turned Into Cash for Wife—Young Woman Is Flippant.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 1.—Winnie McMichael's personal property, sold by the sheriff today in Norristown to satisfy the $10,000 judgment obtained against the young woman by Mrs. Catherine T. Dunham, consisted of a $35 horse, a $45 carriage, and a road cart, which was a Christmas gift to Miss McMichael from Dunham.

Miss McMichael told a reporter that she owned none of the household furniture and other chattels in the Glenade cottage, which also is for sale to satisfy the claim of Mrs. Dunham, who accused the pretty Irish lass of robbing her of her husband's affections.

Father's Property.
She declared her father, Alexander McMichael, owned the household goods.

"Mrs. Dunham," she said, "is welcome to the road cart which her husband gave to me Christmas of 1932. I bought the horse and carriage at auction, and they are all I possess."

"I intend to insist upon my rights, and I will resist any attempt to dispose of things which I don't own."

"Will you attend the sale?" she was asked.

"Me? No!"

"Me? Indeed not," she snapped, saucily. "Do you think I am that much interested in it. I am being persecuted, and I can only submit in this case."

Her father declared that he would oppose any effort on the part of Mrs. Dunham to deprive the home of its furniture.

GOT HUNTER'S LICENSE TO MARRY THE GIRL

Confused Lover Took Out Papers for the Chase Instead of Altar.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 1.—Louis Bell was so frustrated when he entered the city hall to procure a marriage license that he stood in the line waiting for hunters' license, and when his turn came, said: "I want one of them, too."

The clerk issued the license, and Bell returned to the home of his bride-elect. The guests had all arrived, and the ceremony was about to proceed when the minister discovered that the license was wrong.

Bell inspected the document and found it to be a hunter's license. While he was hunting happiness, he did not want just that kind and so told the clerk when he returned to the city hall. The old license was canceled and the marriage license issued instead. The wedding then proceeded.

RHEUMATISM AN INSIDIOUS DISEASE THAT BREAKS DOWN THE STRONGEST

Rheumatism does not come on in a day; the causes that produce it work silently in the system for years. This insidious disease becomes entrenched in the blood, and some exposure to cold or damp weather, or slight indiscretion brings on an attack. Poor digestion, stomach troubles, weak kidneys, torpid liver, and a general sluggish condition of the system are responsible for Rheumatism. Food souring in the stomach poisons the blood, the failure of the kidneys and liver to act properly leaves waste matter and impurities in the system, which, coming in contact with the natural acids of the body, form uric acid. This is absorbed by the blood, and as it penetrates to the muscles, nerves and bones produces the terrible pains and aches and other disagreeable symptoms of Rheumatism. Life is made a torture by its excruciating pains, nerves are shattered, the health undermined, and if the disease is not checked it breaks down the strongest constitution. It will not do to depend on plasters, liniments, etc., such treatment is helpful in easing the pain and reducing the inflammation, but does not reach the blood where the real trouble is located. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism by purifying and invigorating the thin, acid blood, driving out all impurities and poisons and sending a stream of strong, rich blood to wash out all irritating particles that are causing the pain and inflammation. S. S. S. stimulates the sluggish organs to better action, tones up the stomach and digestion, restores nervous energy and builds up the entire health. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism, whether acute or chronic, and the cure is thorough and lasting. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice desired without charge.

SOFT SPEECH MAKES WOMEN REMOVE HATS

Flattery, Coupled With Evangelist's
Request, Causes Instant
Compliance.

WINCHESTER, Va., Dec. 1.—"You ladies wear the biggest hats I ever saw in all my travels as an evangelist, and for the convenience of those behind you, I must request that you take them off," so spoke the Rev. John E. Brown, the noted Missouri evangelist, who is conducting a great revival at Braddock Street Methodist Episcopal Church, today. Mr. Brown said that it was impossible to preach to flowers, dead birds and plumes, no matter how pretty and expensive they may be.

Women composed the larger part of the congregation, and he said he wanted to look them square in the face and tell them they could get to heaven on their good looks, for the Virginia girls, he thinks, are the prettiest and most attractive he has ever seen.

These few words caused every hat to come off instantly.

DEAD BABE MAY RENEW PIUTE-WASHOE WAR

Body of Papoose Found Gnawed by Beasts—Thought to Have Been Killed by Feudist.

RENO, Dec. 1.—The remains of an Indian baby in a basket and wrapped in blankets and clothes were discovered by Arthur Raymond and James Gibbs about two miles north of the city. They were brought to this city by Coroner Read.

The flesh had all been eaten from the skeleton, and the clothes and blankets in which the child had been wrapped were torn and gnawed by wild animals in their efforts to eat the body.

The clothes and blankets were saturated with blood, showing that the child had in all probability met a violent death.

The cause of the young papoose's death has not yet been determined, but it is thought by the Indians and many white people that it was the result of a feud between two Indian families of the Piute and Washoe tribes.

These tribes have been warring continuously for ten years. Recently the hatchet was buried.

There are a few discontented ones in both tribes who did not favor this action, and the death of the babe is thought to be the result.

It may mean the resumption of strife.

MURDERESS DYING; YEARS IN PRISON

Broken Down by Her Long Confinement.

TRIAL GREAT SENSATION

Jane Robinson Convicted of Killing
Nephew—Husband and Daughter Victims.

BOSTON, Dec. 1.—Broken down by her confinement of seventeen years, Jane Robinson, whose trial for murder in 1918 was one of the great sensations of the country, it was said today, is expected to die at any moment. The woman, who is the only member of her sex in solitary confinement in Massachusetts, is at present in the East Cambridge jail, where it was said she is suffering from heart trouble, complicated by a nervous disease, and that she has not many days to live.

The trial of Jane Robinson aroused not only the interest of the entire country, but was reported extensively in all the European newspapers. The specific charge on which she was convicted was the murder of her brother-in-law, Prince Arthur Freeman, although there were four other indictments for murder against her. Her victims, all of whom died from arsenic poisoning, were her son, William J., twenty-three years old; her brother-in-law, Prince Arthur Freeman; her daughter, Elizabeth, twenty-three; her husband, and her nephew, Thomas Arthur Freeman.

It was charged that she committed the murders to obtain the insurance money on the lives of her victims, and arrested with her at the time were Dr. Charles C. Beers, of Allston, and Thomas R. Smith, who boarded in her house.

Mrs. Robinson was found guilty, and on June 22, 1918, she was sentenced to be hanged. Three days before the time set for her death, the sentence was commuted to solitary confinement for life by Governor Ames. She was taken to the East Cambridge jail, placed in a cell and no one except her son Arthur and the prison authorities was permitted to speak to her. She was transferred twice to the Lowell jail, but was sent back to East Cambridge each time.

The prisoner is permitted to walk for an hour in the jail yard each day, and this is her only exercise. Even yesterday, when every other prisoner in the jail was enjoying a special Thanksgiving meal, the woman had to remain in her cell and eat her food alone. Her son is permitted to talk to her for a half hour every two weeks, and he has called steadily since her imprisonment. The prisoner has spent most of her time reading religious periodicals.

CUBAN PAPER PRAISES EX-MINISTER SQUIERS

HAVANA, Dec. 1.—The resignation of Mr. Squiers, the American minister, is the subject of much comment by the newspapers.

The Lucha attributes his resignation to his unfriendly relations with Secretary of State Root. It praises Mr. Squiers' affability, and says he cultivated the acquaintance of the men who represent industry and commerce, and tried to post himself on everything without abandoning his own opinions, as became a good diplomatist.

EVANGELIST IN SALOON DEFENDS PATERSON

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Dec. 1.—William Asher, an evangelist, spoke in defense of Paterson at a prayer meeting which he conducted in Mayer's saloon, at 54 Montgomery street.

"Paterson has been getting a lot of hard knocks," he said. "You read a good deal in the papers about it being a wicked city, but I tell you fellows it is not any worse than any other place."

A character known about town as "The Corn Doctor" sang "Nearer, My God, to Thee." He said he hadn't been in church in twenty-five years. He left the saloon with tears streaming from his eyes.
